COL. MITCHELL'S RESIGNATION IS ACCEPTED

OUT OF ARMY AFTER 28 YEARS' VALIANT SERVICE

WILL TAKE UP ACTIVE CAMPAIGN OF RE-ORGANIZING NATIONAL DEFENSE

DEVOTE MOST OF HIS ATTENTION TO THE AIR SERVICE

Washington, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Secretary of War Davis today accepted William Mitchell's resignation from the army.

Announcement of this action was made by the war department as follows:

"The war department has decided that the resignation of Col. William Mitchell, air service, will be accepted to take effect Feb. 1, 1926. The adjutant general of the army has been notified of this effect."

Although no mention was made of the fact, it is customary for resignations to be accepted by the secretary of war "in the name of the president," and it was assumed that there was no departure from custom in this case.

Mitchell accordingly will be a free man next Monday, out of the army after 28 years' service. He looks forward to an active campaign in behalf of his ideas for re-organizing the national defense and in particular the air service.

In answer to questions as to whether Secretary Davis or the president made the actual decision to accept the resignation without qualification, war department officials insisted that it was handled as a routine matter by Davis.

Though Davis discussed the case with the president, no definite instructions were issued by the White House, it is understood.

The routine of acceptance today will be as follows:

In the printed special army orders will appear the following paragraph:

"The resignation by Col. William Mitchell, air service, of his commission as an officer of the army is accepted by the president."

A printed copy of that paragraph will be sent to Mitchell and his superior officer.

FORBES, THOMPSON SEEK TO REVERSE JAIL SENTENCES

Chicago, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Attorneys for Charles C. Forbes, former head of the Veterans Bureau, and John W. Thompson, St. Louis, contractor, will go to the United States supreme court in the fight to reverse the jail sentences and fines imposed on the two for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government. This announcement was made today following the refusal of the federal circuit court here to grant Forbes and Thompson a re-hearing. Forbes and Thompson are out on bond. They are under sentence of $10,000 and two years in federal prison. They were found guilty of charges of conspiring to defraud the government in connection with hospitalization contracts.

FIREMEN AS ASSISTANTS TO THE STORK

Miller, S. D., Jan. 29. — (UP) — A mother and her new-born baby were carried from the city hospital here by firemen late yesterday when flames from the Odd Fellows hall threatened the hospital.

Many seriously ill patients were carried from the hospital on stretchers during the sub-zero weather, there were no casualties however.

The Odd Fellows structure burned to the ground.

SEN. NYE WANTS INDUSTRIES TO BE INVESTIGATED

WAGES AND WORKING CONDITIONS IN STEEL, COTTON, WOOL PLANTS

ALSO ALUMINUM INDUSTRY — NORTH DAKOTA SOLON TO INTRODUCE RESOLUTION

By PAUL R. MALLON

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Washington, Jan. 29. — A plan to have a senate committee investigate wages and working conditions in the steel, cotton, wool and aluminum industries was announced today by the new insurgent, Sen. Gerald P. Nye, republican, North Dakota.

Nye will introduce in the senate this afternoon a resolution which call upon the vice president to appoint seven senators, four republicans and three democrats to conduct a thorough probe and report back to the senate before May 31.

Nye charges that these industries which are protected under the tariff are "using the protection as a cloak to effect higher prices" to farmers and consumers, instead of granting their employees suitable conditions.

The plan first was suggested by the Massachusetts state federation of labor which has adopted a resolution demanding such an inquiry in connection with proposed 10 per cent wage reductions in New England cotton and woolen mills.

Under rules of the senate, the resolution will lie over until tomorrow. Objection probably will be made to its immediate adoption and it will then be referred to the committee on audit and control.

"Conditions in North Dakota and the farming region generally are so unbalanced that the people are desperate," Nye said. "Everybody is protected but the farmer."

"The farmer feels that the tariff is being made to work against him and although he is said to be protected, the protection is not made available in any material degree."

"They believe that the tariff is being used as a cloak to effect higher prices on things the farmer must buy."

MAY ENTER SEVERAL THOUSAND EXHIBITS IN CASE

Faulton, S. D., Jan. 29. — (UP) — Admissibility of several thousand exhibits offered by the prosecution as evidence against A. W. Ewert, former treasurer of the South Dakota rural credits board, charged with embezzlement, was considered today by Judge J. H. Bottum.

Upon the trial judge's decision in this matter will depend the entire future of the case. If the exhibits are ruled out, charges against Ewert will probably be dropped for lack of evidence. If the state is upheld, a speedy conclusion of the trial is foreseen.

For two days admissibility of the exhibits has been argued by opposing counsel before Judge Bottum. The defense contended the exhibits were of secondary importance and not properly identified. The state admitted secondary nature of the question evidence but argued its right to use any data at hand.

INVESTIGATE SORRY PLIGHT OF FARMER

Christmas Lake, Minn., Jan. 29. — (UP) — The wounding of Oscar Peterson, farmer, and firing of his house and barn with loss estimated at $6,000 was investigated by county officials today. Peterson was found wounded and half frozen by a group of neighbors who saw the fire raging on his property. They took him to Northwestern hospital where his condition is said to be serious.

Just before the fire Peterson had been in Minneapolis to answer a divorce suit against him instituted by his wife. She had not lived with him for some time and sought separate maintenance on the grounds of cruelty.

MIDDLE WEST FARMERS FAVOR DICKINSON BILL

CLAIM IT'S A MEASURE THAT WILL PROVIDE FARM RELIEF

CORN CONFERENCE AGREES ON PRINCIPLES FOR ITS CAMPAIGN

By IRWIN I. FEMRITE

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Des Moines, Jan. 29. — Middle western agriculture today was on record as favoring the principles of the Dickinson bill now before congress as the one legislative measure best able to provide farm relief. A joint committee of two members from each of the corn belt states will act as a lobby at Washington to press the program approved by the Corn Belt Conference, called here by Gov. John Hammill of Iowa to evolve a remedy for the surplus corn problem.

The accord of the meeting was broken for a few moments late yesterday when W. J. Drummond, Missouri, chairman of the board of governors of the American Farm Congress, charged that the conference did not represent the attitude of the middle west and therefore was without authority to adopt a legislative policy.

Drummond took the platform amid hooting and hissing and failed to convince the several hundred delegates from the 11 corn states that they did not represent agriculture. The conference agreed on the following principles in the fight for relief:

1. The organization of the agricultural area as a closely knit unit and keeping it so organized indefinitely.

2. Institution of a practical but energetic study of the cost of farm commodities, production and distribution.

3. Insurance that farm commodity production hereafter shall and must be sold only on the producers' fair price like all other well organized enterprises and not on what the buyer is willing to pay.

Creation of an export corporation by congress was demanded so that these things might be secured for the farmer immediately. It was the plan of the conference to maintain permanently the agricultural area marketing committee for at least five years. Headquarters will be established in Washington.

The agricultural area marketing committee named by Gov. Hammill includes:

Minnesota — W. C. Coffey, St. Paul, dean state college of agriculture; O. P. B. Jacobson, St. Paul, chairman railroad and warehouse commission.

South Dakota — C. W. Cross, Aberdeen, manager South Dakota Wheat Growers Association; G. J. Moen, Canon banker.

Wisconsin — L. R. Clauson, Racine, president J. I. Case Co.; Edward Nordman, Madison, state commissioner of markets.

North Dakota — (Members to be named later.)

NEGRO HUNG FOR MURDER OF WATCHMAN

Chicago, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Campbell McCarthy, 19, strapping Negro, was hanged here today for the murder of Christian Getzen, a watchman, during a holdup. The trap was sprung at 7:34 a. m. and McCarthy was pronounced dead at 7:48.

McCarthy had an extra hour and a half of life because the sun did not rise until after 7:30 and the law provides that hangings shall be held between "sun-up and sun down." Campbell was scheduled to hang at 6 a. m. but the execution was held in abeyance until "sun-up."

Eight other murderers, one of them a Negro are in the jail awaiting execution.

WAKATSUKI TO TRY HAND ON NEW CABINET

Tokio, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Home Minister Wakatsuki was today commissioned to form a cabinet to succeed the cabinet which resigned following death of Premier Viscount Kato.

Kato has been honored in death by an increase of rank to that of count.

His funeral will be held Tuesday with impressive Buddhist rites and the nation plans to pay him high tribute.

Tokio, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Home Minister Wakatsuki today assumed the premiership of Japan and formed a cabinet of the members of the former regime headed by Viscount Kato who died yesterday.

PEKING'S NOTE SATISFIES THE RUSSIAN SOVIET

Moscow, Jan. 29. — (UP) — The Peking government's reply to the Soviet note on the China East railway situation made public today says China has satisfied the main "requests" of Russia, namely release of Russian Manager Ivanoff and companions, who had been arrested by Chang Tso Lin, Manchurian chief.

The note adds that the Tuan Chi Jul regime is confident that mutual sincerity and justice will enable peaceful solution of the remaining railroad problems, such as maintenance of peace and order along the line.

FLOUNDER IN VERBAL RUTS AT CONFERENCE

ANTHRACITE COAL COMMITTEE VAINLY SEEKS SETTLEMENT

STILL WITHOUT A SIGN OF AGREEMENT TODAY

By PAUL W. WHITE

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 29. — Floundering helplessly in the verbal ruts, worn by many days of unvarying argument, the anthracite coal committee attempting to negotiate settlement of the hard coal strike was still without sign of agreement today.

The conference of miners and operators had before it a well piled table of peace proposals, material enough to provide unlimited discussion but nothing approximating an end of the suspension was in sight.

Yesterday, even after the visit of Secretary of War Davis, who is believed to have held a secret meeting with President John L. Lewis of the miners, the conference was bitterly deadlocked. In fact, it was learned that one of the stormiest sessions developed since the first conferences held in Atlantic City last July.

RELIEF COMES TO MIDDLE WEST

SUB-ZERO WEATHER OF PAST 2 DAYS IS ELIMINATED

Chicago, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Relief came to the middle west today from the sub-zero weather of the past two days.

Thermometers in this forecast area were well above zero today, compared with a low of 30 degrees below zero early yesterday.

Three deaths were ascribed to the cold wave.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 29. — Near normal temperatures prevailed here today after a night of high variable winds which made temperatures seem lower than they really were. Street corner thermometers registered nine above zero.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 29. — Relief from the unexpected cold wave which sent the mercury down to 14 degrees below zero yesterday and caused one death, perhaps fatal injuries to two persons, and much suffering, came today as the mercury reached 10 degrees above.

St. Paul, Jan. 29. — The sub-zero wave which made Minnesota the coldest state in the Union yesterday, lifted last night when 2 degrees above was registered at 10 P. M. Temperatures climbed still higher during the night until 11 above was reached today.

New York, Jan. 29. — Whipped downward by an eighty-mile gale, temperatures here today stood at one above zero on the streets with the prospects of going even lower. The slump in the mercury started late yesterday when the wind at one time reached a velocity of 84 miles an hour. Pedestrians who were not blown from their feet walked warily along the streets to work as huge electric signs creaked overhead.

Shipping was tied up in the harbor and incoming vessels were delayed by storms at sea. The weather bureau gave little hope for warmer weather in its forecast today.

One death, that of a man at Flushing, N. Y., had been reported here as attributable to the cold weather overnight.

WIRELESS CRACKS OUT REPORTS OF SHIP RESCUES

STEAMERS PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND BREMEN ACTIVE

PERFORMED DARING WORK IN WORST GALES OF THE ATLANTIC

By MINOTT SAUNDERS

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Queenstown, Jan. 29. — The wireless cracked out today from the path of the life saving steamers, President Roosevelt and Bremen, and told tales of their daring work in the worst gale of years in the Atlantic. Captain Wurtz, taciturn German skipper, flashed here a brief but graphic tale of his snatching six men from the foundered Laristan, while Captain Tose of the Antioch in grateful words sent to the world an epic of his own crew's privations and the heroic service rendered by Captain Fried and his volunteers from the Roosevelt in taking all off — more dead than alive.

Wurtz's message to the Limerick Steamship Co., agents for the Nord Deutscher Lloyd, ended with the simple statement:

"One man drowned, six saved. Stood by 36 hours and very sorry we were unable to save entire crew."

His message recounted finding the Laristan on the morning of the 26th, wallowing in a heavy northwest gale which whipped snow squalls across a wild sea.

"Sea very high," said the Teuton. "Confused swell, impossible to send out boats. Tried save crew with lines from shooting guns and drifting line with life belts."

"Had four times connected. Crew didn't risk taking this chance (coming down the life line). One boat from the Laristan was hanging on the davits."

Maneuvering carefully while the storm still whipped away, they finally got the boat with only seven men in it astern of the Bremen.

That was all, except the sorrow of the Hansa Seaman that the next 34 hours did not yield the rest of the men — only flotsam on the waves to tell that they had gone to a sea graveyard.

New York, Jan. 29. — Captain Fried of the President Roosevelt today wireless to the United States lines headquarters an epic of the sea details of his brilliant rescue of all hands aboard the distressed British tramp freighter, Antioch.

"Five forty A. M. of 24th," he wireless, "received S. O. S. from steamship Antioch. Proceeded to her position by radio compass, the bearings of which proved her position 100 miles in error."

"Alongside her at noon. West wind violent with snow squalls, high rough sea. We were rolling 35 degrees."

"Took position quarter mile to wind-up, pumped oil overboard with excellent effect. Her captain claims this saved them from sinking. Lost sight of her 9 P. M."

"Her radio and dynamo out of commission. Severe snow squalls. Searched and picked her up again 3:40 P. M. 25th with engine and fire room flooded and Number 3 hatch broken. Heavily listed to starboard."

"Weather moderated, attempted send manned lifeboat with Chief Officer Miller in charge."

"As the lifeboat was lowered, a vicious hail squall roared down upon rescuers and the sea proved so rough that they were spilled out of their boat."

"Covered with a heavy coating of fuel oil and chilled through by the frigid seas, the men scrambled onto the boat."

"Men seemed exhausted," continued the report. "Ordered men aboard assisted by life lines. All recovered except Wierman, master at arms, and Heitman, bosn's mate."

On the 16th the Roosevelt continued to stand by. The Antioch was showing then only a single oil lamp, a poor marker for a storm.

"Her distress signal indicated perilous situation," said Fried. "Attempted to float boat to her by aid of Lyle gun. Got boat to her but she lost it. Tried floating cask but failed."

On the following day Fried kept to his station and sought by various means to take off the frozen mates on the Antioch.

"Attempted float boat to her with end of line leading from top of after-king post in order to allow the line to drop on her deck by coming up close to her stern and swinging around sharply," Fried continued. "This failed."

"Fired Lyle gun again and rockets. Got line to her. When they hauled in the line cut on their rail and lost the boat."

Col. Hearn, an artillery expert, was among the passengers and he suggested a method for shooting the gun which proved successful.

"Weather now moderating, occasional snow squalls," continued Fried's message. "At 7:20 lowered manned lifeboat successfully. Took off 12 men."

"Boat badly damaged. Cut her adrift. Midnight weather greatly improved and aided by moonlight took remainder of crew aboard."

At 1:35 A. M. the Roosevelt went on her way again, leaving the Antioch, still floating, her decks awash, a mere hulk. In brief terms Capt. Fried told of what must have been a strange funeral service:

"Our crew almost exhausted by long vigil. When my two men were lost Doctor Cochrane and Monsignor Whelan held service for them."

FIRE DRIVES 200 FAMILIES TO THE STREETS

New York, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Two hundred families were driven into the streets in zero weather today when fire broke out in the Lenox Wall Paper company's plant and in that of the Royal Furniture Co. Residents of adjoining apartment houses were aroused and sent to police stations to keep warm while firemen brought up emergency apparatus to control the flames. Damage was estimated at $250,000.

MARTIN DURKIN, GUNMAN, IN NOT GUILTY PLEA

SAYS HE DID NOT SLAY PATROLMAN AND FEDERAL AGENT

POLICE OF CHICAGO CHARGE HE SHOT HIS WAY TO FREEDOM

Chicago, Jan. 29. — (UP) — Martin Durkin, 24, handsome and notorious killer, today entered a plea of not guilty to the charge that he murdered Patrolman Harry Gray and Edward Shanahan, federal agent, here several months ago when he shot his way to freedom from two police traps.

Judge Harry B. Miller set the date of trial for April 5.

Atty. John Tyrell for the defense said he would probably ask for a change of venue, because Mayor William E. Dever and police officials had characterized Durkin as a "yellow dog" and that it was obvious his client could not get a fair trial in Chicago.

Many young girls were in the jammed court room, anxious for a look at the youth whose reputation as a breaker of hearts equals his reputation as a killer.

Motions to quash the indictments were denied.

JURY TO DECIDE IF WOMEN BANK ROBBERS ARE SANE

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 29. — (UP) — The jury to decide whether Mrs. Catherine Rogers and her daughter, Zera Crumb, were insane or responsible for their actions when they held up the bank at Kenner last fall was expected to receive the case before night as the trial war resumed today.

Final arguments of attorneys was all that remained before the case went to the jury for a verdict. Rebuttal witnesses on the stand yesterday declared neither the mother nor daughter were insane when they committed the crime.

The two women were arrested soon after the holdup when they attempted to spend some of their loot in a dry goods store here. They readily confessed the robbery.

ST. PAUL MEN TO STUDY RIVER FREIGHT TERMINALS

St. Paul, Jan. 29. — (UP) — A delegation of St. Paul city officials headed by the mayor starts a trip down the Mississippi river tonight to study freight terminals. It will visit Cairo, Ill., Vicksburg, Memphis and New Orleans. The purpose is to gather first hand information regarding dock facilities at river ports with a view to installing necessary equipment here for the barge line to start operations next spring.

Washington, Jan. 29. — (UP) — The I. C. C. placed a final valuation of $55,937 on the total owned and used property of the Mineral Point and Northern railroad of Wisconsin as of June 30, 1917.

suggested a method for shooting the gun which proved successful.

"Weather now moderating, occasional snow squalls," continued Fried's message. "At 7:20 lowered manned lifeboat successfully. Took off 12 men."

"Boat badly damaged. Cut her adrift. Midnight weather greatly improved and aided by moonlight took remainder of crew aboard."

At 1:35 A. M. the Roosevelt went on her way again, leaving the Antioch, still floating, her decks awash, a mere hulk. In brief terms Capt. Fried told of what must have been a strange funeral service:

BATTLE LINES ON NON-PARTISAN LINES DISCLOSED

DEFINITION SECTION OF MEASURE NOT COMPLETED IN DEBATE

PARTY LINES DISREGARDED IN CONSIDERATION OF BILL

Schall-Johnson hearings continue before privileges and elections committee.

House: Considers agricultural appropriations bill.

Congress 100 Years Ago Today Both houses take additional day for week-end recess.

Washington, Jan. 29. — Battle lines on federal taxation were drawn up on non-partisan lines in the senate today as the $352,661,000 revenue reduction bill entered its second day with the reading clerk. The definitions section of the measure was not completed in the first day of debate.

Party lines have been disregarded and senators with opposite economic views found themselves on the same side for some provisions as the fight opened.

Senator Lenroot, Wisconsin administration leader in the world fight, is attacking the inheritance tax repeal provisions which is so dear and necessary to Sen. Smoot, Utah, chairman of the finance committee, reviser of the tax bill and the administration's leader in this fight.

Lenroot thus aligns himself with Senators LaFollette, Shipstead, Frazier and other insurgents on this vital item.

In the fight over repeal of public income taxes voted by the house upon an administration mandate, Senators Harrison, Mississippi and Simmons, North Carolina, both democrats, have come out in favor of it while two other regular democrats Senators McKellar, Tennessee, and King, Utah, oppose it.

Washington, Jan. 29. — The senate today approved without objection, the normal rate schedules in the new tax bill.

By unanimous consent the provision authorizing the new rates of 1½ per cent on the first $4,000 of incomes; 3 per cent on the next $4,000 and five per cent over $8,000 was adopted in committee of the whole, although amendments may later be proposed.

The rates in the present law are 2 per cent on the first $4,000; 4 per cent on the next $4,000; and six per cent over $8,000.

Action of the senate was taken without debate during the reading of the bill on adoption of unobjection committee amendments.

London, Jan. 29. — (UP) — The Prince of Wales, with his collar bone broken in yesterday's 14th riding mishap, passed a good night and was reported today to be progressing well.

With his fresh difficulty from his persistent horsemanship gave rise to concern among many British subjects who have deemed the Prince too daring without adequate riding ability, the Prince himself was reported taking the fracture as only incidental to a love for following the hounds.

Egotism That Might

Be Termed Sublime

Standing passively by the dancing floor he glanced languidly over the young females that ogled him as they passed. Carelessly he brushed the suspicion of a stray hair back into place. There was Loretta—a giddy thing in April blue—and, as usual, trying to make him. He met her glance coldly and pulled softly at his tie—it would bring the red out a little more in the knot.

Julie—a creamy bit of inanity—a stinging reply finished her meaningless babble. He wondered a little,
though, if he had blended the face powder properly. Nanette—a drab splurge of colors—was simply not noticed. He pulled the handkerchief out a little from his pocket.

Oh, well, he was tired of being admired, and it was boring to be constantly avoiding their praise. He strolled into the smoking room, pulled out his silver cigarette case—gold was so gaudy—tamped a long, thin cigarette reflectively, lit it and walked over to the mirror. He studied himself a moment. His features stiffened, he bit his lip.

Finally, his eyes blazing, he hurled
his cigarette case at the glass.

"Liar," he muttered and turned and walked out of the room.—Notre Dame Juggler.

Particles in Millions

Make Up Human Body

Science has made one of its greatest discoveries in the last 15 years.
It is that every kind of substance on earth, including the human body, is made up of invisible particles of positive and negative electricity, which the scientists have labeled "protons"
and "electrons." While these particles grouped into atoms are too tiny to be seen, scientists have been able to count them by the flashes of light
they give off when projected against a screen under a magnifying glass.
These tiny units of electricity have an enormous attraction for each other,
which is lucky for us, for that is what knits matter together. In fact, a Yale scientist calculates that if all the positive particles of electricity in a cubic inch of solid matter could be separated and put in one pile, and all the negative particles of electricity contained in the same cubic inch of matter could be similarly separated, that the force of attraction between the two piles, provided they were placed one inch apart, would be thirty-six times a hundred times a million times a million times a million tons. And hard as that is to believe he is probably right about it.—Capper's Weekly.

Robins Stand on Rights

The robin has lived so long in the company of man that you will seldom
find it far from a human dwelling.
In the suburbs of towns one pair of birds will have three or four gardens
which they look upon as their own preserve, and if another robin attempts to enter their domain a fight takes place. The stranger is often driven away, but sometimes the newcomer is victorious, and then the first pair have to seek fresh grounds.

Rejected Slavery Idea

A pro-slavery constitution framed
at Leecompton, Kansas, by a constitutional convention September 5 to November 7, 1857, during the agitation for the admission of Kansas to the Union, was rejected by the people.

Term Often Misapplied

In Europe the term "peasant" is applied to a small landed proprietor who tills the soil himself. It is used improperly in the sense of an uncouth
or uneducated laborer.

Chequered Print Is Used for an Afternoon Frock

Chequers is the handsome American print used for this attractive frock
which is combined with a plain-tone
silk.

Hints on Fashions Now

Calling for Attention

Filmy affairs of georgette or chif-fon are being worn at dancing parties
by the younger girls. These are rather high waisted with full skirts billowing
to the knees and completed with sleeves tight to the elbow and flaring
at the wrist. One novel adornment of such frocks is a drooping bow of chif-fon, embroidered in rhinestones, which springs from one shoulder strap.

Brims which have been turned up sharply some time are now turned down, according to London milliners.
The brims are not allowed to flop down, however. The fur-felt sports hats are fairly high of crown and the brims are made with a steel wire edge to hold them in shape. A big bow at the back is the sole decoration of some of these hats. Others are turned up in the back and down in front.

The new woolen sports fabrics designed for wear in, to and from the South this season are not only soft in texture but in color. The new shades follow the tints grouped under the name bois de rose, rose tans, rose grays and dusty tans and grays. Green is also an important shade with emphasis on the light tints. The blues usually have a distinct touch of green. The designs include two-toned diamond effects and checks.

Dress designers are insisting now
that evening wraps should always recall the dress with which they are worn in color. Thus an evening wrap of a contrasting color should be lined in the same colored satin or lame as the dress. The chinchilla coats and capes are similarly treated.

Pajamas essentially for wear to sleep in are soft of texture and simple of line. Those worn in boudoir privacy to lounge in are strikingly elaborate as to material. The trousers usually are of black satin gradually tightening from knee to ankle and the tops, of metal brocade, heavily embroidered. The coats may even be fur trimmed at collar and hem.

Velvet Is Popular for

Day and Evening Wear

Velvet is indubitably the fabric of the moment. One has only to view the collections of models shown by important couturiers and modistes, to study
the costumes of women lunching at the Ritz in Paris or attending the premiere of a much-heralded new play to realize that not only has fashion given her cachet to this material but that the smartest women have taken it up with enthusiasm. To be sure, it shares honors with lames and brocades, but the frequent alliance of these materials
makes for the quintessence of chic.

Two-piece jumper frocks of dull silver cloth are worn under velvet coats;
in other instances both jumper and coat are of velvet, while the skirt is a circular or plaited affair of silver or gold lame.

The dominance of the evening ensemble remains unchallenged and in its smartest interpretation it takes the form of a frock of lame topped by a flaring coat of the same material lined throughout with velvet in a brilliant shade, and luxuriously collared with fur.

Dyed Furs Play Part

in Milady's Apparel

This fashion of dyed fur is already in currency among styles worn on Fifth avenue, says a New York fashion writer. A fanciful suit of novelty tweed, with circular skirt topped by a circular jacket, was banded in bright green mole, which also formed the tiny Queen Anne collar. The same fur mole in a clear shade of blue formed an entire coat,
made full length and straight lined,
and matched by a little velvet hat.

Naturally enough, colored furs are not restricted to wraps. An evening frock of gold-spangled net over yellow matches its foundation with a double skirt border of yellow fur, which distincts the sheer, circular skirt. Dyed pelts, in soft narrow bands, may also be employed as little brims on hats of felt or velours.

Dainty Scarfs in Brilliant Colors

Attractive Neckwear From Many Countries Now
on Display.

It is interesting to see the suggestion of nationality that is expressed in the great variety of things for the neck now shown by all the shops,
large and small. On long showcases,
says a fashion writer in the New York Times, are gay silk crepe and chiffon scarfs that might be taken for the flags of France, Italy or any other country. These scarfs are either printed in the different colors on one piece,
or are made of strips of alternating materials. Stunning effects are given in red, orange, blue or green material in three-inch lengths sewn together. Plaids and checks are equally popular. Many Scotch tartans may be traced in the patterns of the latest and most picturesque neck scarfs.

In the departments of neckwear
this idea is illustrated in Roman stripes, Scotch plaids and the printed designs characteristic of many foreign peoples. Now that gowns are worn high in the neck there has been a demand for many forms of neckwear. There are waistcoats of plain goods severely tailored, of showy stripes in two colors, in black and white and in checks that may properly be described as "loud." The small plaid patterns are used also in yokes
with little revers, collars and cravat

Scarf from Scotch Plaid Motif, Conventional Designed Flowers.

ties. Gumpes and bodice fronts in various ingenious forms are made of these contrasting materials. There are many original and attractive sorts of neckwear that are especially suitable for one-piece frocks, adding a touch of trimming that gives a costume a more finished appearance. Collars and cuffs of every conceivable
style are made of almost every fabric known to modern fashions—from linen and cotton to metallic brocade
and gilded leather.

Black printing on such colors as red, orange, yellow, gray, Nile green and white is a new feature of the scarfs shown for resort wear. The heavy scrollwork seen on the old-fashioned iron gates supplies the theme. The idea in having the design begin at each end of the scarf and taper off toward the center is to allow for enough of the plain material
to show when the scarf is wound
about the neck and crossed at the back in the new way.

Gigolo Retains Place

at Head of Paris Mode

The gigolo is still the favored hat
of the chic Parisienne, and its smartest versions are in solid colors, writes a Paris fashion correspondent in the New York Herald-Tribune. Rose Descat's round crowned chapeaux, with no more than two plaits at the back,
are also popular. Draped high crowns,
square crowns and crowns which suggest the Louis XIV period are combined smartly with capeline brims
which turn up sharply in the front.

There will be another attempt to revive the large or picture type of hat
at the Paris spring openings, as well as at the spring millinery openings in New York. Probably the enthusiasm of last year for these wide-brimmed hats will be greatly modified at the coming openings, for experience has taught the modiste that bobbed hair
and the broad-brimmed hat cannot be united. Until the locks are lengthened the slim-brimmed chapeau need not fear for its laurels. Apropos of the bob, Paris reports a noticeable reaction toward longer tresses, although the movement is not expected to become general.

The aligrette, as applied by Reboux,
is the smartest trimming, and it is a welcome feminine note. Its favorite place is at the side back. Hatpins are being used in fanciful designs, and in addition to the images of animals
there are now pictures of clowns and pierrots, formed by brilliants on the head of the pin.

He Was Due for Promotion

By RHODA MOORE

(Copyright.)

IT WAS exactly 9:30 o'clock, on the morning of June 10, that Lois Huntley came to the staggering conclusion
that Allen didn't love her.

She knew it was June 10, for it was her birthday. She was positive it was 9:30 o'clock, for she had glanced at the clock on the desk as she had answered the phone. She was convinced that Allen no longer loved her when he phoned that he would not be home for dinner that night.

No, Allen had never loved her. In all their three years together he had never been really angry. But on this lovely June morning little things from the past aligned themselves to taunt
and jeer her.

There was the Saturday afternoon
when Allen had gone to ride in the country with Frank Milton, though she
and Allen had had other plans.

There was the matter of the player-piano. Lois had begged Allen to buy one on the installment plan.

That night he had taken her out in the suburbs and shown her the house of her dreams.

"Some day," Allen had said, "we will own a home like that."

For several months now, Allen had been working overtime. Sometimes he didn't get home until ten o'clock.

Now, on top of it all—this! Her birthday, and Allen had forgotten!
He didn't love her. This was the end of that perfect union she had visioned on her wedding day! How many times she had heard other young wives air their troubles, and she had vowed, "Allen and I won't be like that when we marry."

Of course, just now the "other man" should enter to offer to take her away from all her misery, but this is precisely what did not happen.

Furiously Lois tore into her morning work and soon had her tiny flat spick and span. She was in a restless, reckless, vengeful mood. What right had Allen to neglect her so?

Her eye fell on her rouge box. Allen detested the stuff. She had discarded
it, long since, for his sake, but now
she seized it eagerly. She also applied powder and lipstick. She viewed the finished job with delight, and then with an added thrill as she thought how angry Allen would be. Slipping into her most daring gown, she stooped and rolled her stockings below the knees. Horrors! What would Allen say?

With a last desperate, wicked impulse she placed one of Allen's cigarettes between her lips, applied a match, and lay back luxuriously in the most approved vamp manner.
Suddenly she sat up, throat and lungs smarting and tears pouring from her eyes.

Anyhow, she felt better. Now for a "movie."

From the picture show she hurried
to a restaurant, determined not to go home until Allen should return and have time to miss her.

The waiter recognized her and conducted her to a secluded table where she had often sat with Allen in the days when he had still loved her. How nice it would be, she thought, if she only had someone to talk to now.
What harm could there be? Allen no longer cared!

Suddenly a voice from the other side of the booth broke in on her thoughts. They were talking about some young man due for promotion.
She wasn't particularly interested.
The only way Allen could manage a raise was by robbing her of his company at night.

Then, all at once, she was listening intently.

"Of course it isn't certain that

Huntley will be chosen for the vacancy, though, by Jove, he deserves it. He isn't afraid of work, and he knows more about the business than any of the rest of us fellows.

"Allen doesn't think they will elect him, but he says that if they do the credit will belong to his wife. She has understood perfectly the necessity of his leaving her so much at night.
Most women would have made a fuss.
And she isn't the kind to imagine herself abused if he forgets to kiss her good-by in the morning. She realizes that a busy man, striving for a goal,
can't think of everything, and she sends him off with a smile which helps him start the day right. From all Allen has told me of his wife I figure
she deserves all the love he certainly holds for her alone."

"Yes," answered his companion,
"and she sure is a good looking. No paint and powder for her. She doesn't need it and is sensible enough to know
it. Some dresser, too—the modest kind; but she always looks like a queen. I hope Allen wins."

Some time later, when silence had persisted for many minutes on the other side of the booth, a little figure stole quietly away and hurried home.

When Allen came home that night
a starry-eyed, shining-faced, carefully
dressed woman met him as he bounced
into the room.

"I have your birthday gift, dear,"
he cried, excitedly. "My promotion,
with all it can bring to you. Our little home can now be ours."

With arms around his neck and lips
close to his Lois answered:

"I have my promotion, too, dear, to the glorious position of an 'understanding wife.'"

Allen was puzzled by her words, but perfectly satisfied at what he saw deep down in her shining eyes.

OUR FREIGHT RATES (LESS THAN CARLOAD LOTS)

WHEN Fargo and Watertown, North Dakota, raised their voices and wanted so-called discrimination in freight rates leveled at their towns adjusted to something within reason, they surely "started something," to use a colloquial expression. Rates were not depressed as they desired, they stayed where they had been put. The I. C. C. took out its blue pencil and encircled a vast territory supposed to be tributary to Watertown and Fargo and raised the rates. That raise on stuff of less than carload lots worked out a lot of peculiar things in rates.

For instance, here at Brainerd, under the old rates first class freight (l.c.l.) rates from Minneapolis and St. Paul to Brainerd was 55 1-2 cents. The new rates is 76 cents. Second class rate was 46c, now it's 65c. Third class rate was 37c, now it's 53c. Fourth class rate was 28c, now it's 42c.

A corresponding increase in freight rates, less than carload lots, occurred from Duluth to Brainerd. Old rate first class was 51c, new rate is 70c. Old rates second class was 43c, new rate is 60c. Third class old rate 34c, new rate is 49c. Fourth class old rate was 25 1-2c, new rate is 39c.

Another peculiar thing about having the I. C. C. dictate freight rates in Minnesota is that a soda pop manufacturer can get a better rate shipping his Brainerd product from Barrows to Staples, via Brainerd, than he can shipping directly from Brainerd to Staples, less than carload lots.

The railroads have now appealed to the state railroad and warehouse commission to adjust these various inconsistencies in freight rates. And how is it to be done? No, not by lowering, but by raising others.

In short, they are asking our state railroad and warehouse commission to raise the state rate schedule to the level of the rates recently fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission as the result of the Fargo and Watertown rate cases.

It's getting so with freight rates these days that when some community roars for relief, it's given a raise. A raise in wages is always welcome, but a raise in freight rates takes the joy out of life. The farmer is the only shipper who pays the freight both ways. The manufacturer, the wholesale house, the commission house passes on any increase it must pay to the ultimate consumer.

WHAT IS THE SALVATION ARMY?

THE Salvation Army is a Christian movement designed to reach and to serve the great masses of the unchurched in all lands and in all climes, irrespective of creed, color, or race. The charitable and humanitarian work of this movement was started with a very definite purpose but without a specific program. It has developed in many different directions in response to human needs as they have been discovered and has not been restricted or limited by any preconceived or arbitrary plan. This explains its extraordinary variety and scope.

The original purpose of the Army was exclusively evangelical. The Salvationists were to take the gospel to those who would not seek it in the churches. They were to invade the highways and byways and preach salvation to the spiritually blind and poor in heart.

But it was not easy to talk spiritual salvation to a people who were dazed and bewildered by acute physical need. That such responded to the preaching with manifest eagerness made the task all the more perplexing. Their ears were attuned to the "voice crying in the wilderness;" but—what were they to do about it? The man without a job, enervated through privation; the girl facing motherhood dismayed and alone; aged men and women without homes in which to spend their declining years; the youth, realizing the futility of indulgence, but puzzled as to which way to turn; the criminal brooding in his cell; the widow, with her children, valiantly waging a losing battle against poverty and disease; the wayward, the unfortunate, the irresponsible, the weak of will—all of these saw the light of hope in the message that was brought to them, but it seemed far off, intangible, beyond their reach. It was clear that these people needed material assistance and patient guidance from others who could understand their troubles.

It was in response to such need that the Army entered the realm of social service. Today, every corps is a center of charitable activity. Relief is freely given whenever and wherever the need is apparent.

HOW TO INCREASE BUTTER PRODUCTION

How can butter production be increased in Crow Wing county? We felt proud of the fact that the total value of dairy products in our county was a million dollars a year until we heard Senator C. Rosenmeier mention that Morrison county turns out $3,000,000 worth a year. That set us to thinking.

C. H. Eckles, chief of the division of dairy husbandry, University of Minnesota, at the second day's meeting of the Minnesota State Dairyman's convention in Brainerd, said that by culling poor producing cows and feeding the remainder properly, 150,000,000 pounds of butter can be added to Minnesota's annual production.

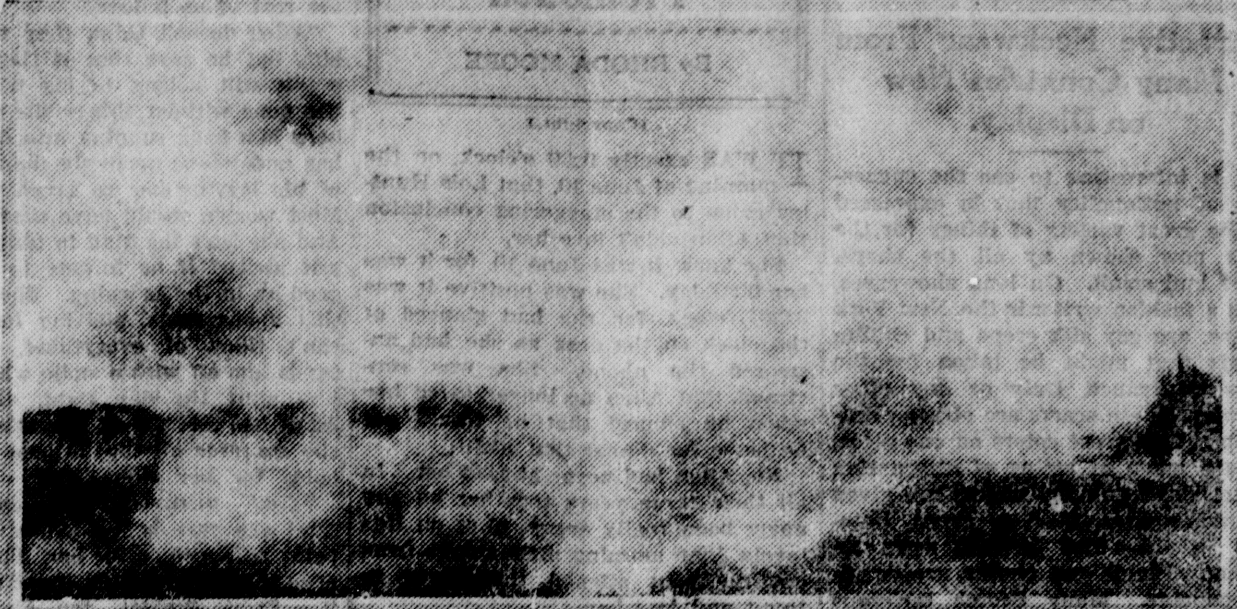

"Many believe it is not desirable to increase the agricultural production at present. Is this an excuse for keeping two cows to do the work of one? If we are producing all the butter we think desirable, why not do it with the least number of cows?"

"It is easily possible by applying well known principles of feeding to increase the butter production of the cows now in use from the present average figure of 160 pounds yearly to 225. By culling one-fifth of the poorest producers and feeding the other properly the average could be readily raised. Such an increase would add 150,000,000 pounds of butter to our annual production if we kept all the cows. For the owner of 10 cows this would be 1,000 pounds of additional fat worth nearly $500.

"It would not be desirable to add this amount of butter to our present supply. The thing to do is to increase the efficiency of production, cutting down the cost. By feeding the cows now on hand properly 300,000 could be sent to South St. Paul without decreasing the total butter production.

"Success in dairy farming is a 50-50 proposition between getting the right kind of cows and feeding and caring for her properly. The most common mistakes made in feeding the dairy cow in Minnesota are not feeding liberally enough and feeding a ration short of protein."

$2,000,000 PER DAY IS ESTIMATED COST OF THIS BLAZE
WHICH HAS BEEN BURNING STEADILY FOR 2 YEARS

Gas which comes from a depth of 3,740 feet has been burned at the rate of 12,000,000 cubic feet a day for two years at the Royall Oil Company's naphtha well in Turner Valley, 43 miles from Calgary, Alberta. After the 75 per cent naphtha is refined, the natural gas left over after the gasoline has been extracted is pumped to Calgary and is used to heat thousands of homes. But more gas issues from the well than can be used and this daily surplus, amounting to 12,000,000 cubic feet, is burned by the giant 100-foot flame shown in the above photograph. This gas would be worth $2,000,000 per day.

GASTON B. MEANS
AS A WITNESS

TO TESTIFY IN ALIEN CUSTODIAN INVESTIGATION

New York, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Gaston B. Means, now serving a term in Atlanta federal penitentiary, is to be a witness before the federal grand jury investigating the methods of Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian.

Federal Judge Thomas Thatcher has issued a writ of habeas corpus to the warden of Atlanta penitentiary, requesting that Means be turned over to the authorities who will be sent from here to bring him before the grand jury. Means who has testified in numerous investigations into scandals of the Harding administration, will testify on Tuesday.

Another federal figure, who also testified in the previous investigation into Miller's conduct in office, Roxie Stinson, of Washington Court House, Ohio, will be called.

The testimony of Mal S. Daugherty, brother of the former attorney general, will not be concluded today but will be continued tomorrow morning, making eight days during which the jury has heard Daugherty's testimony. Closest secrecy surrounds the nature of the testimony given by Daugherty.

MAC READY AFTER ALTITUDE RECORD

McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Braving zero temperatures, Lieut. John A. MacReady, the intertid army ace, hopped off in his Xcoat plane at 10:10 a. m. today in an effort to recapture the world's altitude record.

The present record of 39,500 feet is held by Callizo, the daring Frenchman, who established the mark some months ago. To return the laurels to America, MacReady must ascend approximately eight miles.

Cloudless skies and a tranquil atmosphere prevailed as the record seeking airman soared heavenward.

MacReady piloted his plane back to McCook Field at 12:05 p. m. central standard time, after spending 55 minutes in the air.

REORGANIZING STATE DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

St. Paul, Jan. 28.—(UP)—A saving of $24,800 a year will result from reorganization of the state departments of agriculture and dairy and food, Governor Theodore Christianson declared today after a conference with N. J. Holmberg, commissioner of the two departments.

The reorganization was affected at the governor's order with co-operation of Holmberg and the department of administration and finance. The new plan for co-ordinating work of the two branches will become effective Feb. 1. The first step was taken last summer when Holmberg became head of both departments succeeding Chris Heen as commissioner of dairy and food.

5 YEAR BUILDING PROGRAM IN NAVAL AIR SERVICE PLAN

Washington, Jan. 29.—(UP)—A five year building program for the naval air service including construction of two huge dirigibles and establishment of a west coast air base was given to the house naval committee today by Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, navy air head.

Moffett requested an appropriation of $4,500,000 for the proposed Pacific air base and asked that $2,000,000 be made available to start work on a dirigible of six million cubic feet capacity.

HIDEOUS BEQUEST GIVEN TO WIFE

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 29.—(UP)—Probate court officials were puzzled today over the will of James Thorpe, who died here December 12, leaving most of his small estate to a brother and sister and "one shilling to my wife on condition she buys rat poison and drinks it within six hours of receiving the money."

Mrs. Edith Partington Thorpe, the widow, is understood to reside in Wigan, Lancashire, England. The will was dated Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 15, 1922.

STATIC WALL BARS RECEPTION FROM EUROPE

DISCOURAGEMENT IS EXPRESSED
OVER RESULTS OF INTER-NATIONAL WEEK

SOUTH AMERICA CONTINUES TO COME IN WITH CLARITY

New York, Jan. 28.—(UP)—With a wall of static effectually barring Europe and America as far as radio communications have been concerned, the radio week committee yesterday admitted its discouragement over the results of the International Broadcast Week.

Little more success was had by listeners who strained their ears to hear European cities last night than has been had on the previous days.

Air conditions were slightly more favorable last night than they have been any time during the week of the test.

South America continued to come in with clarity and volume but only a very few fans reported authentic reception of European stations.

M. W. Craddock, Bayonne, N. J., one of the first to report, said that on a specially constructed 10 tube set he heard Hamburg, Madrid, Lima and two Buenos Aires stations in fairly quick succession and then dialed back to Hamburg.

The final opportunity for Americans to tune in Trans-Atlantic programs came last night. Practically all German, Austrian and South American stations participated as did 2LO, London, and stations in Glasgow and Plymouth.

PROHIBITION FORCE IN N. W. REDUCED

St. Paul, Jan. 29.—(UP)—With eight more prohibition agents taken from the northwest force next week, the district will be reduced 31 from its original quota.

When Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews first took charge of enforcement 75 agents were assigned to the northwest department composed of Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin, west of Milwaukee. Now there are only 44 agents for the entire district.

While a border patrol of 15 men is technically under jurisdiction of the northwest department, it is not subject to orders of Gen. W. F. Rhinow, district administrator. In addition to the customs patrol there are six inspectors who work from northwest headquarters.

'TIN PAN ALLEY' SEEKS PROTECTION

Washington, Jan. 29.—(UP)—"Tin Pan Alley" has joined the army of legislation seekers who knock perpetually on the doors of congress and are demanding legislation to protect their interests abroad.

Leaders of famous American jazz orchestras have formed a "legislative band" and have enlisted the aid of Rep. Vaile, Colorado, republican. He has presented a bill which would authorize the secretary of state to instruct ambassadors abroad to "limit or restrict" the issuance of passport visas to citizens seeking entry for business or pleasure.

Musicians unions abroad, particularly in England according to Paul Specht, noted New York bandmaster, have succeeded in preventing many of his and other American jazz bands from fulfilling engagements in foreign countries.

LAUSANNE TREATY WITH TURKEY IS REPORTED FAVORABLY

CHICAGO GRAND JURY INDICTS

Chicago, Jan. 29.—A deputy United States marshal, three policemen, an ex-convict and two other persons were understood to have been indicted by the federal grand jury today in connection with operations to extort money from violators of the liquor law. Names of the indicted men were kept secret pending court action.

A score of drug store owners and soft drink shop owners and one brewer testified before the jury. It is understood the brewery owner said he paid the man $20,000 while the other victims said they paid from $500 to $1,000 for fear of arrest. More indictments will follow, officials said.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN
brought natural relief
in a few weeks

A remarkable, convincing tribute is paid Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in this letter from Mr. F. C. Aminsen, of Seattle:

"I suffered with chronic constipation for many years and was compelled to use pills every night, but since I got your Kellogg's ALL-BRAN it works fine. I would not be without it. I was so deathly sick of taking pills every night. Now it is so different. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works so naturally and is pleasant to take."

You can get permanent relief from constipation with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN if eaten regularly. Two tablespoonfuls daily—or in chronic cases, with every meal. Doctors recommend it because it is ALL BRAN. It does a job only ALL-BRAN can do. Part-bran products may not do any good at all.

BELGIUM PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE CARDINAL MERCIER

BELOVED CARDINAL
YESTERDAY

ROYALTY, PEASANTS AND WORKERS DO HIM LAST HONORS

Brussels, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Belgium yesterday honored with a national funeral its loved Cardinal Mercier and royalty mingled with peasant and worker in doing him homage.

Through thoroughfares black with mourning folk their heads bared passed his casket to the tolling of the chimes of St. Gudule church.

Within the edifice where in war days his defiant proclamations to the Belgian populace against the German masters were read, the cardinal's body was placed in state among a noble company of mourners and with impressive rites of the church he served in peace and war, Belgium took its leave of him before his body went again to Malines to lie with the halcyon dead in a crypt beneath the altar of the medieval cathedral.

CHICAGO HEARS INTERNATIONAL RADIO LAST NIGHT

Chicago, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Radio stations in London, Madrid, Stuttgart, Prague, Brussels, and Lima were heard last night by local fans who listened in on the international radio tests.

A few minutes later he listened to a man singing with guitar accompaniment at 7EAM at Madrid and shortly thereafter he had tuned in on a Stuttgart station which was broadcasting selections from "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Most of the fans reported hearing 2LO at London.

SECOND HEIR IN CHAPLIN HOUSE

COMEDIAN EXPECTS THE SECOND
VISIT FROM THE STORK
IN THE SPRING

By LINCOLN QUARBERG
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Copyright, 1926, by United Press
Hollywood, Calif., Jan. 28.—A second heir is to arrive soon at the House of Chaplin. The world famous comedian expects a second visit from the stork in the spring, it was learned yesterday. The impending event was confirmed by the expectant mother.

"Charlie and I are both very happy," she told the United Press.

"We expect the baby about the latter part of April. We both hope it will be a girl. We were not disappointed the first time when Charlie, Jr., came and I hope we will be just as lucky this time."

Chaplin refused to discuss the forthcoming advent of a second child. Since his marriage in November, 1924, the comedy king has refused to talk to newspapermen about any subject other than his pictures.

"Mr. Chaplin will not speak for publication about his family affairs," his press agent reiterated.

Mrs. Chaplin discussed freely the pending return of the stork.

"Why, it's too good a bit of news to keep to myself," she said. "I'm proud to be a mother and very proud to be the mother of Charlie's children."

Mrs. Chaplin has vacated the palatial Chaplin mansion in Beverly Hills.

She is living with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Spicer.

"I shall remain here with mother until after the baby is born," she said.

The first Chaplin heir was born early in June, last year.

Chaplin has religiously avoided discussing his marital alliances with Lita Grey since their elopement to Empalme, Mexico, in November, 1924. She had been his leading lady and their marriage was sudden and unexpected.

This tragedy of history
proves how truly you need a clear soap

At a brilliant pageant, directed by the famous Leonardo de Vinci, a young boy was gilded from head to foot. It caused his death—because his pores were clogged. This shows how important to both health and beauty it is to use a soap that thoroughly cleanses pores to their very ends without clogging them.

The one soap that does this best, beauty specialists say, is dainty Jap Rose. Unlike thick, coarse soaps which clog pores, Jap Rose is so fine, so pure that it dissolves completely in water and hence can enter, cleanse and stimulate the 5 miles of tiny pores in your body.

You can tell it is doing this by the pleasant temporary tingle that follows its first use.

AGED DUNDEE IS TO MEET YOUNG GLICK

MOURNERS TO GATHER AT TEX RICKARD'S GARDEN

DECREPIT DUNDEE PARTICIPATED IN 342 RING BATTLES

TONIGHT'S BOUT MAY WIND UP HIS GALLANT CAREER

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Jan. 29.—With eyes ready for tears and voices tuned for a requiem, mourners will gather tonight in Rickard's Garden, for what is feared will be the last gallant stand of old Johnny Dundee.

For the 343rd battle of his career, Dundee will drag his ancient and scarred shell into the ring against Joe Glick, who couldn't come down the steps of an East Side tenement house without help when Dundee fought his first fight 18 years ago for two dollars.

Glick represents youth, extreme youth in that conflict of romance again tottering age, and the boys are betting 8 to 5 that age, as personified in Dundee, cannot pull one of its infrequent reverses of nature's form.

Dundee has a daughter almost old enough to go to the movies with young Joe Glick and the real glory of his career dates back to the days of Johnny Kibane, Freddy Welsh, Willie Ritchie, Charley White, Abe Attell, Joe Rivers and then into the more modern era of Benny Leonard, Willie Jackson and Lew Tendler.

It is said of Dundee who was born Giuseppe Carrara, that he never refused to fight any one and never quibbled about terms. He dragged himself out of the grave several years ago, whittled himself down from 147 to 125 pounds and won the featherweight championship of the world with the greatest fight of his career again Gene Ciriqli, the French war hero of Verdun.

Making such weight proved a penalty that hastened his decline.

Since that night the mourners' bench has always had the tapper ready for the dirge that some time will have to signal the end of one of the most unique of all ring records.

In picking young Glick, old Johnny certainly was not looking for a bargain. The east side youngster, by a sensational rise from the $10 fights in the armories, has become in less than a year one of the most promising fighters in the country. He is what they call a "big shot" now in New York and only the good fighters now command the large money.

BASEBALL HEADS GATHER IN GOTHAM

New York, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Prominent baseball officials began to gather here today for series of social and business sessions that will extend into next week.

Practically all of the high moguls will attend the annual dinner of the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers association Sunday night and the golden jubilee dinner of the National league Tuesday night.

The schedule committee of the National league also will meet next week.

Commissioner Landis will be asked to settle the dispute between the Brooklyn Robins and the Minneapolis American association clubs over Johnny Butler, an infielder. The Robins claim that Minneapolis failed to live up to a contract to deliver Butler.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 29.—(UP)—Bill Ingram, former coach at the University of Indiana, has signed to coach the Navy next fall, it was announced yesterday.

Ingram resigned as football coach at the University of Indiana last week and it was understood that he would coach the Navy this season, but the naval academy authorities did not make any announcement until Thursday.

LITTLE FALLS HERE TONIGHT

GAME AT HIGH SCHOOL EXPECTED TO DRAW BIG GATE

NEW FACES IN LINE-UP; START-OFF WHISTLE AT 8 O'CLOCK

The Brainerd high school basketball team is in good condition for the crucial game tonight with the Little Falls players, a number of new faces being seen on the revamped line-up of the locals.

Coach Beresford has a bigger bunch of candidates to choose from, and is planning to send in his strongest five to try to stop the losing streak of the locals. For the first time this year, there are no ineligible players on the squad.

Among the new men are Lowe, DeRocher, Koop, Wise, and Hautala. These men are trying to displace some others, who have borne the brunt of the work so far this season. The men who have been on the team thus far include Avery, Marshall, Orth, Lorenz, Tribur, Eckholm and Gile.

The locals are fast getting into shape for the district tournament, which this year will be played at Crosby, on March 5 and 6. Brainerd has the bye in the first round, meeting the winner of the Pine River-Aitkin game on the morning of the 6th.

The following account is taken from the Little Falls Daily Transcript:

Two strings of players are expected to be available for Little Falls high school's invasion of Brainerd Friday night. Fortier, who will play his first game of the season this week, and Captain Bastien comprise one set of forwards while Bolander and Teeri will also be on hand to fill the position. Teeri also may be used at running guard, having fitted in at that station with telling effect when the Staples team was running over the Helland crew in the recent battle on the railroad town floor.

Following some unsatisfactory officiating at games Coach Helland has appealed to the district committee, of which Superintendent Bergquist is a member, for an umpire as well as a referee at the district tournament in Crosby. Decision in this matter is pending.

E. V. Wetzel of the Diamond Sign Jewelry store is donor this year of the gold basketball charm which will be given the player leading in the free throw contest, staged three weeks before the tournament in order to develop greater accuracy in shooting.

Each of the eight players entering the tournament will take 50 shots a night for three weeks. The trophy was won by Wilfred Blair last year.

GORMAN IS NEW SPEED SKATING KING

CANADIAN STAR CAPTURES OUT-DOOR EVENTS AT ST. JOHN

SCORED 140 POINTS AND COLLAPSED AT END OF 5 MILE RACE

St. John, N. B., Jan. 29.—(UP)—Charley Gorman, Canadian star is the new world's outdoor speed skating champion as a result of his victory yesterday in the quarter mile and five mile finals.

Gorman collapsed at the finish of the five mile race but not until he had broke the tape for the final victory that gave him a total of 140 points. O'Neill Farrell, Chicago, runner-up to Gorman, with a total of 80 points, fell in the quarter mile race and made a claim of a foul but it was not allowed by the judges.

The scores made by the other competitors were Eddie Murphy, Chicago, 70; Willie Logan, St. John, 69; Richard Donovan, Endicott, N. Y., 40; Leslie Boyd, New York 10; Clas Thunberg, Finland, Olympic champion, 10 and Lew Morris, New York, 10.

The showing of Thunberg was the big surprise of the meet. Ranked as the fastest skater in the world by his performances at the Chamonix Olympic races in 1924, he could do no better than land one third place.

McGRAW HOPES TO WIN 1926 PENNANT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 29.—John McGraw is making no secret of the belief that he expects his New York Giants to win the 1926 National league pennant. McGraw has been in baseball too long to become a victim of rash predictions but he knows that he can't be shot for hoping.

The deal with the Philadelphia Phillies, which brought Jimmy Ring, one of the Cincinnati heroes in the 1919 world's series, in exchange for Wayland Dean and Jack Bentley, gives McGraw the pitcher he thinks will put his club back into the next world's series.

Ring, McGraw believes, will win between 20 and 25 games for the Giants and if he delivers that well, the Giants ought to give the Pittsburgh Pirates the fight of their young lives.

The Giants probably will be strengthened by the deal as Dean failed to live up to promise and Bentley, who cost the Giant bosses $65,000 was out of place.

McGraw was forced to use Bentley only as a pitcher because he had two first basemen in George Kelly and Bill Terry and there was no room for him in the outfield.

Bentley may turn into a great ball player with the Phillies because he will have a chance to work every day and he ought to be able to hit in the small Philly park.

Some smart baseball men think that McGraw gave away too much for Ring but the Giant leader knows his business and he claims that for the first time in five years he has a pitching staff that will not add any more white hairs to his thatch.

The Giants and the Cincinnati Reds were the only National League clubs to do any constructive rebuilding during the off season.

The Reds, in buying Wally Pipp from the New York Yankees, plugged up a big hole that the club has been carrying since Jake Daubert died and added a punch with the stick that has been sadly missing.

It is not a good bet, however, that Wally Pipp will make a pennant winner for the Reds or that Jimmy Ring will get the Giants back into the world's series as long as the Pittsburgh Pirates have the strength that that fine young ball club now possesses.

The Pirates have a powerful offense and a sturdy defense. They have the confidence and the faith in themselves that can come only to a world's championship team. They have the spirit and just about everything that a championship team needs.

3 DIED, 2 IN CRITICAL SHAPE, GAS POISONING

DEADLY MONOXIDE GAS CLAIMS VICTIMS AT HOLCOMB, WIS.

GAS CAME FROM GASOLINE ENGINE OPERATING LIGHTING SYSTEM

Eau Claire, Wis., Jan. 29.—Three persons died and two others are in a critical condition as the result of having been overcome by monoxide gas poisoning at the home of Dr. O. M. Engers at Holcomb near here today.

The dead are: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Martin, parents of Mrs. Engers.

Overcome and in a critical condition: Mrs. O. M. Engers; Mrs. E. E. Engers.

The gas came from a gasoline engine operating a lighting system in the home of Dr. Engers. Snow blown into the exhaust pipe of the engine plugged it up and caused the deadly gas to fill the lower floors of the house.

The victims were found by Mrs. Thelma Loisel, a neighbor, when she went to call at the Enger home. Mrs. Martin was lying on the bed. Mrs. James was sitting in a chair and Mrs. Engers was lying in another bed; while Mrs. Engers was lying on the floor.

Martin was found dead in the basement having apparently gone downstairs to investigate.

Dr. Engers was in Madison and Mrs. Engers was alone and having become ill had called her parents, who lived nearby. Mrs. James, a nurse, was sent for to come in and take care of Mrs. Engers and brought her daughter, Mrs. Rosenberger, with her.

Dr. C. R. Rodecker was called to attend to Mrs. Engers and shortly before he left became faint but did not connect his condition with his visit there.

All are believed to have been overcome by the deadly gas after the doctor left.

FIVE KILLED IN MINE BLAST IN ILLINOIS

ORIENT MINE NO. 2 AT WEST FRANKFORT SCENE OF ACCIDENT

EXPLOSION COVERED A SMALL AREA, FOUR MEN ESCAPED

West Frankfort, Ill., Jan. 29.—(UP)—Five men were killed in an explosion in the Orient Mine No. 2 here today shortly after the miners had entered for work.

The explosion covered only a small area of the mine where nine men were at work. Four escaped.

The mine was owned by the Chicago, Wilmington & Franklin Coal Co. There was no subsequent fire after the explosion and mine owners were at a loss to explain it. It was reported around the mine entrances that one of the miners going to work lighted a cigaret shortly after entering the shaft and this ignited gas which had gathered at one of the turns.

The five bodies have been removed from the mine.

MURDER AND SUICIDE INDICATED

Safety in Submarines

The Navy department says that as a means of escape from a submarine, the crew climbs into the conning tower and lets in air to an amount which creates a pressure greater than that outside. The conning tower is then opened from the seaside and the pressure is so great that it shoots the crew out of the conning tower.

UNWELCOME IDLENESS FOR HELEN WILLS

RAIN BREAKS UP PLAY IN THE GALLIA TOURNAMENT

PARIS PAPER ASSAILS HER FOR WRITING COMMENT FOR PUBLICATION

Cannes, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Another day of unwelcome idleness was forced on Helen Wills, American tennis champion, today when rain broke up play in the Gallia tournament and caused a postponement.

Little concern was expressed by Miss Wills over the complaint made by a Paris paper that she is acting in violation of the amateur rule in writing comment for publication about the tournament in which she is playing here.

She said she felt quite sure that she was acting within her rights and that there was no foundation for the charges made against her.

Hundreds of the fashionable critics here expected to see the California girl give another smashing exhibition in her quarter of the final round match against Mrs. Haylock, England.

The ferocious manner in which she disposed of Miss Lilly Cadle yesterday opened the eyes of the critics and caused them to amend the opinions they have been expressing about her chances in a match against Mlle. Lenglen. It was the unanimous opinion that nothing like the power of the game had ever been shown by a woman player and by few men stars in Europe.

New York, Jan. 29.—No action will be taken by the United States Lawn Tennis Association on the charge made in Paris that Helen Wills, American champion, is violating the amateur rule, until a complaint is filed officially by the French Tennis federation, it was said at headquarters here today.

The American rule prohibits a player from writing comment on any tournament in which he is playing until three days after the tournament, but American officials hold that the rule does not apply in the case of Miss Wills.

She is in France as an individual and not as an official representative of American tennis, it was pointed out, and as such, she is bound only by the amateur rules of the country in which she is playing. If she is acting in violation of any French rule it will be taken up to the French officials to draw up a complaint, specifying the violations and submit it to the American association before any action can be taken.

Boxers Must Use Right Names in California

Stage names will no longer be tolerated by the California boxing commission.

The directors of California's pugilism have declared that every boxer must use his right name in all future fight engagements. Even those who have built up a reputation under an assumed name must revert to their given names, the boxing arbiters decreed.

Many fighters have taken assumed names because they did not want their parents to know they were fighting, it was explained.

It is expected the courts of the state will be rushed by the cauliflower entertainers who wish to continue their pugilistic careers under a fighting name. Mushy Callahan, nationally-known lightweight, whose real name was Morrie Scheer, recently applied to local courts and had his fighting name legalized.

Bids received some time ago were rejected by the board. ## Imprisoned Fishing Tugs Released; Men Are Safe

Grand Haven, Mich., Jan. 29.—(UP)—The fishing tugs Helen N. and Indian, imprisoned in ice floes between here and Muskegon, for 36 hours, drifted to within less than a mile off shore today, and solidly packed ice permitted five men remaining aboard to come ashore today without serious hazard.

Three of the men left the vessels last night while a strong wind shifted ice floes, making the journey to shore dangerous. Today the other five followed, arriving here.

DENIED VIOLATING PLEDGE TO PEOPLE

Washington, Jan. 29.—(UP)—Wallace McCamant, nominee of President Coolidge for judge of the Oregon court of appeals, denied today before the senate judiciary committee that he had violated a pledge to the people of his state in refusing to vote for Sen. Hiram Johnson at the Chicago republican national convention of 1920.

"I had as my slogan 'for president, an American, a republican and a statesman'—and I would vote for no one who did not measure up to that standard," McCamant said.

"There are persons born in the United States who are not Americans and who do not measure up to the American standard. I frankly admit I had in mind Sen. Johnson."

Brainerd Co-operative Mercantile Co. Enjoys Prosperous Year

F. W. WILLSON RE-ELECTED
Annual Meeting Held Wednesday Shows Many Improvements in Store

The Brainerd Co-operative Mercantile Co. enjoyed a good year during 1925, according to the annual report made public at the annual meeting held Wednesday night at Farmers' room in the court house.

With the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, and the audit of the year's business read and accepted, a dividend of 8 per cent was declared on capital stock.

Owing to the severe weather, there was not as large an attendance as was hoped for, but a fine representation of the stockholders was present. The meeting was conducted by the president, T. E. Nitterauer.

In the election of directors, T. E. Nitterauer, L. A. McCulloch, and Wm. Webbing were unanimously re-elected, as members of the board.

During the last year the co-operative store building has been remodeled. The flats on the second floor have been remodeled and made completely modern. New shelving, a new office, a ladies' rest room, and an up-to-date furnace have been installed in the building.

After a general discussion the meeting closed with the most harmonious and optimistic feeling for the year 1926. A rising vote of thanks was extended the manager, F. W. Willson, the board of directors, and the employees of the store, for their services rendered during the last year.

Mr. Willson, who was re-elected for another year as manager of the store, sprung a surprise at the close of the meeting, in the way of a fine lunch, consisting of coffee, sandwiches and cakes.

BENEFIT SHOW GREAT SUCCESS

Ladies' Band Proves Hospitable Entertainers With "Blue Beard's Seven Wives"

OVER 1,000 TICKETS SOLD

Misses Bernice Murphy and Hazel Rardin Sell 100 Tickets Each

The Brainerd Ladies' band proved themselves to be most hospitable entertainers by presenting "Blue Beard's Seven Wives" to two packed houses at the New Park theatre last night. It was one of the most successful benefit shows seen during the entire year. The Ladies' band played two snappy selections at the beginning of each show, and their offerings were well received.

Immediately after the ticket selling campaign started two weeks ago, the band members began selling the tickets in earnest. Despite the extremely cold weather, they sold over a thousand of the pastebards before the allotted time was up.

Manager W. R. Hiller of the Park-Lyceum theatres, offered two prizes as special inducements to the girls. Miss Bernice Murphy, with 113 sold, won first prize, a two month's pass to either show. Miss Hazel Rardin, selling an even hundred, won a one month's pass for second prize. Both girls are very deserving of their prizes, having worked hard and faithfully for the cause of the band.

All members did fine work in the campaign, special mention being due Miss Lillian Irwin, chairman of the ticket campaign, under whose direction the show was made the success that it was.

The band wishes to thank Mr. Hiller, manager of the theatres, for his courtesies and for the favorable choice of picture he made. They also desire to thank the Dispatch for its cooperation in the publicity end of the affair, and to thank the public for its kindness and willingness in buying tickets.

The money realized from this performance will be used to purchase uniforms for the new members of the band. The band now numbers almost forty members, about eighteen of whom joined the organization just recently.

"HEALTH" TOPIC WAS DISCUSSED

League of Women Voters Hear Splendid Addresses Tuesday

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Speakers Were Mesdames Opsahl, Rowley, C. A. Nelson, Armstrong, Misses Walsh and Ingebreton

(Contributed)
The reaction from the meeting of the League of Women Voters held at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, January 26th, on "Health" seemed to be a surprise that so much is being done along that line.

Mrs. A. M. Opsahl, reporting on "Free Clinics," enumerated the following which have been held here, namely: 2 orthopedic, 4 dental of which two were given by outside dentists and two by home dentists, 5 baby clinics, and one speech clinic. The latter is given by Miss Oerting of the high school, assisted by Miss Michael, city nurse. Two classes are to be held on Saturdays, one for stammerers and one for other speech defects. Thirty persons are eligible. Thirty-six school children were treated free by car dentists, and each year car doctors give their services to a free nose and throat examination for school children.

Mrs. C. B. Rowley reported on the number of deaths in Brainerd during the past year, with special reference to the maternity and infant rates. The total number of deaths is 146, number of deaths of children under one year is 16, stillborn 18, and maternal, 1.

Mrs. C. A. Nelson told of the duties of the city health board and the nurse supervising board. The latter, which is composed of representatives from the city council, and the school board, and the chief of police, are to advise and assist Miss Michael.

Mrs. Ben Armstrong reported on the existence of an ordinance since 1882, which stipulates that one shall not keep on the premises buildings, cesspools and the like, which are dangerous, unwholesome or uncomfortable to the neighbors. Since then, the original ordinance has been made to include inflammable materials.

Miss Elizabeth Walsh told of our efficient milk inspection. In her review of the subject of federal aid for health, Miss Mary Walsh pointed out that although, whenever the national government undertook to assist any new enterprise, a great hue and cry was raised about "paternalism," that this sort of "paternalism" had been a settled policy of our government from the beginning. In the early days it took the form of land grants to railroads, to promote the settlement of new parts of the country. Another early paternalistic policy was the taxation of imports to protect and encourage American manufacturers—which policy still continues.

Since 1862, the department of agriculture—then only a bureau—has been giving the farmers the results of their experiments in everything that pertains to the growing of agricultural products. Last year this department cost the tax payers $140,000,000, including the appropriations for good roads.

Under Herbert Hoover, the department of commerce is aiding the business man in the same way that the department of agriculture is aiding the farmer.

Among similar governmental services, though on a smaller scale, and costing much less money, are the women's and children's bureaus, in the interests of the health, welfare and living conditions of working women and of children.

"When women put health and happiness ahead of business considerations as essential expenditures, they argue that all business and all earnings are simply means to the end of human welfare and happiness," quoted Miss Walsh. And the conclusion of the whole matter was that "The evidence is incontrovertible that thousands of lives, of women in the prime of life, and babies at its threshold are lost each year through want of care and lack of knowledge. Thousands and thousands more go through dragging years of sickness and of suffering from this same cause. These deaths of babies and of young and vigorous women are an incalculable financial loss to the nation. But measured in terms of human sorrow or broken homes and empty hearts, they are a vastly greater waste. It is our duty to meet this problem insofar as it can be met by human knowledge."

Miss Thora Ingebreton, in her paper on the Shepherd-Towner work in Minnesota and Crow Wing county, did not hesitate to advise members of the League of Women Voters and of all other women's organizations to work for another congressional appropriation for this work. She said that although it had only been in operation three years, in Minnesota, its benefits were pronounced, and it would be no less than a calamity to stop the educational work, and the practical aid to needy mothers which this act had stimulated.

Demonstrations at county fairs and at farm bureau meetings and pre-natal conferences in the various counties, not only bring prospective mothers together to secure this vital knowledge but they bring to the attention of the county nurse specific needs in specific homes, which women's clubs and other women's organizations are glad to supply. In this way, sterilized obstetrical packages are kept constantly on hand, in this county, for the use of nurses in homes too poor to supply them.

Miss Ingebreton mentioned the little mothers' classes, as another means of getting the knowledge of proper feeding and care of the baby into the homes. Four thousand, six hundred

Taxes and Insurance Premiums must be paid regularly, but paying them with current funds is often difficult if not impossible.

A better way is to accumulate tax and insurance money in a Savings Account at the Citizens State Bank with deposits made throughout the year.

When the time comes to pay, the money will be ready and waiting. Try this method and learn for yourself how much better it is.

Explaining the Unicorn

The "unicorn" mentioned in the Book of Job was probably the aurochs, a kind of wild cattle now extinct.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO and VILMA BANKY in "THE EAGLE"

Valentino Now As A Russian Hero

Will Rudolph Valentino do for the Russian what he did for the Latin?

Meaning, will he make us think of the romantic male when a Russian is mentioned?

Ever since Rudolph glided through "The Four Horsemen" and cut a great big niche for himself in the cinema hall of fame we have thought of Spaniards and Argentinians whenever the discussion led to heart flutters. We even think of "sheiks" as being of Latin persuasion. And it doesn't take an ethnographer to tell you that a real desert brand of sheik isn't a Latin.

All of which speculation is due to the fact that Valentino is appearing as a Russian in "The Eagle," a glamorous film now showing at the New Park theatre. "The Eagle" is based on a Russian classic and was written for the screen by Hans Kraly. Clarence Brown, one of the most capable directors, wielded the megaphone.
